
Requests geniuses get

Russell once received the following letter:

Dear Mr. Russell:

My wife and I thought that it would be nice if one of our children was fathered by the greatest genius alive. Naturally we picked you and we are hoping for a favorable reply. We have great faith in you. She can be there in 24 hours.

Love and well wishes

* * * *

P.S. My wife is very attractive see inclosed picture she has long red hair.
