Publication Details

McMaster University is custodian of the Bertrand Russell Archives and is directing this vast editorial project.

Each of the twenty-eight volumes listed below will be bound in an attractive navy-blue cloth, with a gold-embossed profile of Russell on the front. Each volume will be supplied with a protective dust jacket. The first volume, Cambridge Essays 1888-99, will be published in Fall 1983 and, due to methods of working adopted by the editorial team, this will be followed by Volume 7, Russell's Theory of Knowledge: the 1913 Manuscript, scheduled for publication early 1984. The Collected Papers (which will not appear in chronological order) will be published at the rate of approximately one volume every nine months. The anticipated completion date of the project is 2000.

Volume I special pre-publication price is $70.00. After December 31, 1983 the price will be $90.00. The ISBN number for the complete edition of 28 volumes is 0 04 920095 X.
