Russell's "Glossary of Definitions". Found with his letter of 2 July 1905 to G. H. Hardy (RA1 710.050761), but likely written after Hardy's reply of 6 July 1905. Russell did not refer in the 2 July letter to an enclosure, and Hardy complained on 6 July that his symbolism was three years out of date. This seems to be (part of?) Russell's response.