Russell's first 50 years saw the publication of 106 issues. The “old series” started in spring 1971. A new series began with the summer 1981 issue. With the winter 1999 issue, the subtitle was changed from the Journal of the Bertrand Russell Archives to the Journal of Bertrand Russell Studies. Names of contributors to Russell are in small capitals, and the contributions following their names are linked to the online scans or digital edition at mulpress.mcmaster.ca/russelljournal. Visit this site for word-searching and filtering by date. The present index is a revision of the 25-year index (1995) and subsequent five-year indexes. Dominique Déry, Carl Spadoni and Adrienne Wolfe contributed various five-year indexes. Quoted title entries are of either articles or reviews; look under the author entry for which it is.
